

2023-2024 National Pork Producers Council Elected Pork Alliance Positions

NPPC is accepting Pork Alliance candidates for the following positions:

NPPC Board of Directors Representative

Purpose: The purpose of the Board of Directors is to manage the affairs of NPPC, subject to action by the delegate body. The Board of Directors is also responsible for establishing, monitoring, and updating NPPC's Long Range Strategic Plan and give final approval to the NPPC Plan of Work and the annual budget.

Time Commitment: (8-9) meetings per year with conference calls as needed. Two-year term. Serve up to two consecutive terms.

Up to 3 candidates will be nominated by the Pork Alliance for consideration by the NPPC Nominating Committee. The NPPC delegate body will elect one candidate for the NPPC BOD at Form 2024.*

National Pork Industry Forum Delegate

Purpose: Delegates represent the Allied Industry (Pork Alliance) at the NPPC Annual meeting, the National Pork Industry Forum. They are voting members involved in the development of policy and positions that NPPC will use.

Time Commitment: (1) meeting taking place March 5 - 7, 2024 in Chicago, IL.

Two people will be elected.*

If you would like to request additional information on any of the candidate positions, please do so by e-mail (schwalbei@nppc.org). All candidates will be asked to submit a biography to be used on the ballot, as well. You can submit your name as a candidate for either position HERE no later than 5 p.m. on October 27, 2023.

We will be discussing a draft ballot in person at the fall Pork Alliance Meeting in Des Moines, IA, October 24 – 25, 2023. NPPC will send the final ballot via e-mail to Pork Alliance members on November 1, 2023.

One ballot will be accepted per Pork Alliance Member Company.
