

Spring, Summer, and Fall Internships

GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS

Washington, D.C. • Full-Time (Spring, Summer, and Fall) • Paid

Overview

The National Pork Producers Council (NPPC) is the voice of the U.S. pork industry, advocating for 60,000 producers nationwide. With offices in Urbandale, Iowa, and Washington, D.C., NPPC engages with lawmakers, regulators, and industry partners to support a sustainable, globally competitive pork industry.

This internship offers experience in public policy, trade, economics, and advocacy. Interns will work with NPPC policy experts, government officials, and industry stakeholders. This is a paid internship position.

What You'll Gain

Hands-on experience:

- » Researching and monitoring legislative, regulatory, and trade issues
- » Compile daily news clips on agricultural and trade topics
- » Drafting policy briefs, position papers, and other advocacy materials
- » Attending and reporting on hearings, meetings, and industry briefings
- » Supporting stakeholder meetings, as well as policy and trade projects

Timeline

Below is an overview of the internship schedule and selection process. Opportunities for industry travel will also be discussed during interviews.

- » Spring 2027: Full-time, January–May, in-person
- » Summer 2027: Full-time, June–August, in-person
- » Fall 2027: Full-time, September–December, in-person

Apply Today!

Please scan the QR code to submit your cover letter, resume, and two writing samples by Thursday, October 15.

Connect with us:

