

Spring and Summer Internship RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

Urbandale, Iowa • Part-Time (Spring) • Full-Time (Summer) • Paid

Overview

The National Pork Producers Council (NPPC) is the voice of the U.S. pork industry, advocating for 60,000 producers nationwide. With offices in Urbandale, Iowa, and Washington, D.C., NPPC engages with lawmakers, regulators, and industry partners to support a sustainable, globally competitive pork industry.

This internship offers experience in stakeholder engagement, event planning, fundraising, networking, and advocacy support. Interns will work with NPPC's Resource Development team to strengthen relationships with key investors.

What You'll Gain

Hands-on experience:

- » Coordinating and executing events, including the PorkPAC Auction and World Pork Expo
- » Drafting sponsorship agreement letters and packages
- » Supporting NPPC campaigns and events as needed
- » Expanding your professional skill set and industry network
- » Gaining exposure to pork industry issues, networks, and organizational structures
